INTER HOUSE COMPETITIONS

Each coin has two sides. It depends entirely upon a person how to look at it and how to benefit from each opportunity. The Quarantine time demands social distancing but if we look deeply, it has given us a chance to be more socially responsible and closer to our family. The time is a blessing as we can introspect and work on our weaker areas. In the hustle and bustle of our daily life, we start taking many things for granted and hardly realise their importance. Now is the time that we not only fight with the odds rather bring harmony and make it a better life. Let us gear ourselves for the upcoming inter house competitions with full enthusiasm.
